

Augusta H. Peck passed away on Tuesday, Oct. 17, 2006, at Suncoast Manor Nursing Home in St. Petersburg, Fla.

She was born in Napoleon, Ohio, and moved to Franklin from St. Petersburg in 1947. She and her late husband, Luman S. Peck, built and operated Skywater Cottages, on the Highlands Road, until their retirement in 1975. They retained their home on Brush Creek Drive and their residency in Macon County.

Survivors include her daughters, Rebecca Horowitz of St. Petersburg and Carolyn Sullivan of Atlanta, Ga.; her siblings, Ralph Homan of Toledo, Ohio, Richard Homan of Mountain Home, Ark., and Josephine Sheldon of Seattle, Wash.; and five grandchildren.

Burial will take place at Bethel Church Cemetery in Franklin in July 2007.
