

Mrs. Penland

Anita Velma Penland, 83, of Franklin, died Saturday, April 24, at her residence. She was a native of Macon County and the daughter of the late Radford and Sarah McCoy Holland. She was a homemaker and ran a boarding house in Michigan. She was the widow of the late George W. Penland, who died in 1981.

She is survived by two daughters, Georlanna Beach and Glenda Penland of Franklin; three sons, Radford, Lonnie and Terry Penland, all of Franklin; two brothers, Dellis Holland of Franklin and Willard Holland of Shawboro; 12 grandchildren and 11 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Tuesday, April 28, at the Franklin Church of Christ, with Jim Mullican and Ottis Qualls officiating. Grandsons served as pallbearers. Burial was in the Woodlawn Cemetery.

Bryant Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.
