

Mr. Phillips

James Larry Phillips, 65, of Greensboro, died Friday, May 11, in a hospital there.

A native of Franklin, he was son of the late Mattie Cope and Clarence Edmond Phillips Sr. He was a former branch manager with M&J Credit Corp. and had been a sales representative with Interstate Life Insurance Co. He was a former sales representative for the Better Business Bureau and entrepreneur of Lawndale Painting. He was a volunteer with the Hemophilia Association of North Carolina and a former Cub Scout and Boy Scout leader. He served on the board for the North Carolina State Fireman's Association representing the Battleground Fire Department.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by a brother, Roy L. Phillips.

He is survived by his wife, Betty Shaw Phillips; a son, James (Jay) Larry Phillips Jr., of Greensboro; a sister, Louise Phillips Maynard of Charlotte; two brothers, George Robert Phillips of Winston-Salem and Clarence Edmond Phillips Jr. of Yorktown, Va.

Funeral services were held Monday, May 14, at Lebanon Baptist Church, of which he was a member. Burial followed in church cemetery.

Memorials may be made to Hemophilia of North Carolina 2 Centerview Dr., Greensboro, N.C. 27407.