

Marvin Pickens

Marvin Pickens, 61, of Route 7, Franklin, died unexpectedly Thursday, October 31. He was a native of Macon County, the son of Ellie Griffin Pickens, who survives. He was married to Edith Hurst, who also survives. He was employed as a miner.

Also surviving is a son, Harold Pickens, of Franklin; two daughters, Mrs. Kenneth McCall, of Franklin, and Miss Kathy Pickens, of the home; a brother, Wade Pickens, of Franklin; two sisters, Mrs. Dessie Tippett and Mrs. Roger Hurst, also of Franklin; and four grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Saturday, November 2, at Cowee Baptist Church, of which he was a member, and burial was in the church cemetery. Officiating ministers were the Revs. Glenn Whitley, C. C. Welch and Lee Mason and pallbearers were Bill McCall, Charles Brooks, Roy and Aubrey Tippett, and Eugene and Charles Pickens.

Neal and Potts Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

The Franklin Press, 7 November 1974