

Harve Picklesimer

Harve Picklesimer, 82 years old, died Saturday, May 22, at his home of Route 1, where he had lived for the past two years.

He was a World War I veteran and a retired textile worker. The son of the late Dalph and Lizzy Watkins Picklesimer, he was married to Nora Sawyer Picklesimer, who died in 1968. Mr. Picklesimer was a member of the Ridgeview Baptist Church of Mt. Holly.

Services were held at the Patton United Methodist Church Monday with Rev. William Haselden and Rev. W. K. Shields officiating. Burial was in the Mt. Zion Methodist Church cemetery.

Grandsons served as pallbearers.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Mary Stillman, of Dallas, N. C., and Mrs. Gladys Summey, of Homestead, Fla.; two sons, Edward and Verlon Picklesimer, both of Charlotte; three sisters, Mrs. Rosie Rose, of Kingston, Tenn., Mrs. Lela Maddox, Of High Point, and Mrs. Pearl Staton, of Cleveland, Tenn.; 19 grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren.

Neal - Potts Funeral Home was in charge of the arrangements.