

George Poindexter

George Early Poindexter,
78-year-old retired carpenter and painter, died last Wednesday in the C. J. Harris Community Hospital in Sylva following an illness of one week. He made his home with Mr. and Mrs. John Guffey.

His wife was the late Lola Angel Poindexter.

Funeral services were held Saturday at the First United Methodist Church with Rev. Robin Hurley, Rev. C. C. Murray, Rev. Fred Sorrells and Rev. Earl Gant having part in the service. Burial followed in the Clark's Chapel United Methodist Church Cemetery.

Pallbearers were Ray Vanhook, Clarence Vanhook, Lewis Vanhook, Harold McClure, Cecil Poindexter and Theodore Tallent.

Mr. Poindexter is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Kenneth Neal of Franklin; two brothers, Lee Poindexter and Frank Poindexter, both of Franklin.

Funeral arrangements were under the direction of Bryant Funeral Home.

The Franklin Press, 13 January 1972