

Fatal Accident To Mrs. W. A. Poindexter

News has been received by Lee Tallent of Franklin Route 3, of the death of his sister, Mrs. William A. Poindexter, who died from head injuries received in an automobile accident in Mount Vernon, Wash., recently.

The deceased was fatally injured when a tire blew out on the car in which was traveling, throwing her in the path of another car. She had resided in Mount Vernon for the past 25 years.

Mrs. Poindexter, the former Miss Kitty Tallent and a native of Macon county was, the daughter of the late Logan and Amanda Tallent, of the Iqta community. She was married to William A. Poindexter, also a native of this county.

Funeral services were held at the First Methodist church in Mount Vernon, with the Rev. Harry Gardner, pastor, officiating. Burial was in the Mount Vernon cemetery.

Surviving are her husband, one son, Glen, of Seattle, Wash., and one daughter, Miss Edna Poindexter, of Mount Vernon, Wash., and two grandchildren. Also three brothers, Lee, Jess and Ell Tallent, all of Franklin Route 3; two sisters, Mrs. Clifford Hood, of Charleston, S. C., and Miss Callie Tallent, of Sylva.