

Mrs. Lela Poolos,
Native Of Macon,
Dies In California

Mrs. Joseph Ashlar, has received word of the death of her cousin, Mrs. Lela Poolos, formerly of Macon County, in Los Angeles, Calif., October 18.

Mrs. Poolos, who was the daughter of the late David and Mrs. Edith Henry Carpenter, lived in the Ellijay community until she was a young woman. She went West 50 years ago, and when she and her sister, Mrs. Z. P. Moses, of Bakersville, Calif., visited here in 1942, it was Mrs. Poolos' first visit home in 42 years.

Funeral services were held at the Church of the Reconciliation, Los Angeles, October 22, and burial was at Glendale, Calif.

Survivors include two sons, three daughters, four sisters, and one brother, all of whom made their home in California, and many relatives in this county.

The Franklin Press, 17 November 1949