

PORTER RITES ARE CONDUCTED

Services Conducted at the
Andrews Methodist
Church

ANDREWS, Dec. 23.—Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon for J. W. Porter, 63, who died Tuesday night. The services were conducted at the Andrews Methodist church, of which he was a steward, by the Rev. W. G. McFarland, pastor, assisted by the Rev. Walter J. Miller, of Concord, and the Rev. C. S. Kirkpatrick, of Salisbury. Solos were rendered by C. H. Jarrett, Miss Sallie Mae Alphin, and R. C. Andrews.

Surviving are two children, Mrs. H. H. Enloe and George Porter, of Andrews; four brothers, R. S. Porter, of Andrews, James A. and T. W. Porter, of Franklin, and John Q. Porter, of Asheville; three sisters, Mrs. R. M. Waldroupe, of Bryson City, Mrs. Emma Huskin, of Asheville, and Mrs. L. L. Martin, of Asheville. He is also survived by his step-mother, Mrs. Stephen Porter, of Asheville.

Mr. Porter was born in Franklin but had for nearly 40 years been a resident of Andrews. He had been in the mercantile business about 17 years. He was active in community enterprises, having served on the board of aldermen and the school board of the town. —Asheville Citizen.
