

Negro Killed In Auto Wreck On Highlands Road; Driver Held

William B. Porter, negro, was killed instantly in an auto wreck which occurred near the Dugout on the Highlands road Saturday night.

The driver of the car, Arlexie Gray, is being held in the Macon county jail on a charge of reckless driving pending further investigation of the case.

Mr. Porter's home was in Atlanta, Ga., but he was employed during the summer months by the Highlands Country Club. The body was taken to Atlanta by the Hanley Funeral Home.

The Franklin Press, 3 July 1941