

Hillard Postell

A native of Cherokee County and outdoor sportsman

Hillard Postell, 57, of Andrews, died Monday, Aug. 25, 2003, in a Murphy hospital.

A native of Cherokee County, he was the son of the late Vincent O. Postell and Polly Ann Evans Postell. He worked for West Construction Company in Marble and was an avid fisherman and hunter. Hillard was a member of Red Marble Baptist Church.

He is survived by two children, Matt Postell of Spencer, Ind., and Andy Postell and his wife, Lisa, of Spencer; two sisters, Mary Wright of Andrews and Naomi Colvard of Eureka, Mont.; four brothers, Bud Postell, Harold Postell and Donnie Postell all of Andrews and Willard Postell of Nantahala; three grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were held Thursday, Aug. 28, at Red Marble Baptist Church. Rev. Mickey Stewart and Rev. France Postell officiated. Burial was in the church cemetery.

Pallbearers were Jeremy Ward, Roy Wright, Tim Wright, Norman Postell, Jamie Postell, Jason Owenby, Mike Pendergrass and Ron Crawford. Honorary pallbearers were Kyle Moody, Noah Wright, Luke Postell, Garret Postell and Dillan Ward.

Memorial gifts may be made to the Red Marble Baptist Church, 1201 Red Marble Road, Andrews, NC 28901.

Macon Funeral Home was in charge of the arrangements.

The Franklin Press, 29 August 2003