

Mrs. Potts, Of Cullasaja, Dies, Aged 85

Mrs. Alice Potts, 85, died at her home near the Cullasaja post office Wednesday morning at 4 o'clock, following an illness of several years.

Mrs. Potts, the daughter of John and Cynthia Stewart, was born in November, 1861, in Jackson county. She was a member of the Sugarfork Baptist church. She married John Potts, and they had celebrated their 64th wedding anniversary.

Funeral services were held at the John Stewart cemetery Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock, with the Rev. William E. Sorrells, pastor of the Sugarfork Baptist church, officiating.

The pallbearers were Hayes Stewart, Leonard Potts, Harley Stewart, T. W. Reid, Nichols Potts, Charlie Reid and Calhoun Moore, all nephews.

Surviving are her husband, three sisters, Mrs. Ida Ashe, of the state of Washington, Mrs. Parker Moore, of Franklin, Route 1, and Mrs. Waite Reid, of Cashiers, and one brother, Jack Stewart, of Cashiers.

Potts Funeral home were in charge of the arrangements.