

Mrs. Estella Potts

Mrs. Estella Ledbetter Potts, former Macon County resident, died in a hospital in Winston Salem at the age of 44 last Thursday. She was the daughter of Harley Ledbetter and the late Essie Carpenter Ledbetter and the wife of Lee Potts, who survives.

A native of Macon County, she had recently been living in Hoopa, California.

Funeral services were held last Saturday at the Cartoogechaye Baptist Church, of which she was a member, with Rev. Gene Southards and Rev. Robert Dryman conducting the service. The body was taken to Hoopa, California, for burial.

Nephews of the deceased served as pallbearers for the local ceremony.

Besides her husband, Mrs. Potts is survived by one daughter, Mrs. Janelle Johnson, of McKinleyville, Calif.; one son, Eddie Roane, Rick, Calif.; seven sisters, Mrs. Edna Huscusson, Mrs. Annie Kell, and Mrs. Alice Southards, all of Franklin, Mrs. Elba Madison, of Jacksonville, Fla., Mrs. Katherine Sanders, of Castle Rock, Wash., and Mrs. Margaret Rhodes, of McKinleyville, Calif.; two brothers, Lyman and Homer Ledbetter of Franklin.

Bryant Funeral Home was in charge of the arrangements.
