

Mr. Potts

Robert Leonard Potts, of the Yellow Mountain Community, died Wednesday, May 5, en route to Highlands-Cashiers Hospital. He was a native of Jackson County, the son of the late Robert and Stacey Stewart Potts, and was married to Flossie McCall Potts, of Cullowhee, who survives. He was a retired farmer.

Also surviving are four sons, Roy Potts, of Highlands, Curley and Robbie Potts, both of Franklin, and Dennis Potts, of Anchorage, Alaska; three daughters, Helen Holden, of Yellow Mountain, Willene Conner, of Franklin and Gail Rogers, of Highlands; one brother, Nick Potts, of Norton; one sister, Beatrice Murphy, of Auburn, Wash.; and 12 grandchildren.

Services were held Friday, May 7, at Yellow Mountain Baptist Church; of which he was a member, and burial was in the Potts Cemetery. The Revs. Billy Rogers, Edd Bryson and Andy Cloer officiated and grandsons served as pallbearers. They were Johnny and Derrick Potts, Tom and Dwight Holden, Gregg Conner, and Arnold Buchanan.

Bryant Funeral Home, Highlands, was in charge of arrangements.
