

Dick Powell

Dick Powell, 89, of Wilmington, Del., formerly of Rabun County, died Saturday, May 12, 2001 in Claymont, Del.

He was the widower of Elise Smith Powell and was the son of the late James Oscar Powell and Mary Scruggs Powell.

He was owner-manager of Brandwine Restaurant in Wilmington, Del., and was in the real estate business.

He was preceded in death by a brother, Julian F. Powell, and by two sisters, Katherine Powell Ramey and Margaret Powell Heckman.

Survivors include brothers and sisters-in-law, Claude and Doris Powell of Mountain City, John and Helen Martha Powell of Bothwyn, Pa., William F. (Bill) Powell of Conover, N.C.; sister and brother-in-law Ruth and Goodwin Nix of Augusta; a sister-in-law, Louise Pardue Powell of Cleveland.

Graveside services were held Tuesday, May 15, at Rabun Memory Park by the Rev. Sammie Maxwell.

Hunter Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

The Clayton Tribune, 17 May 2001