

John Walton Powell

A retired farmer and U.S. Merchant Marine

John Walton Powell died Sunday, March 2, 2003, at the Veterans Affairs Medical Center in Augusta, Ga. He was a native of Columbia County, Ga., and a retired farmer. He was a member of the McDuffie Cattle Association, the Grove Baptist Church and was a U.S. Merchant Marine veteran. He was preceded in death by his brother, Charles P. Powell Jr.

He is survived by three brothers, F. Arnold Powell of Honea Path, S.C., Theron L. Powell of Lawrenceville, Ga., J. Gordon Powell of Des Moines, Iowa; four sisters, Elizabeth P. Jordan of Tifton, Ga., Emie L. Sillito of Port Saint Lucie, Fla., Gwendolyn Litten of Franklin, and Patsy Joyce Parker of Tifton, Ga.; and several nieces and nephews.

Graveside services were held Friday, March 7, at Grove Baptist Church Cemetery in Grovetown, Ga. His nephews served as pallbearers.

In lieu of flowers, the family requested that memorials be made to the charity of your choice.

Starling Funeral Home in Harlem, Ga., was in charge of arrangements. Condolences may be e-mailed to the family at starling@familink.com.

Memorials may be made to the Angel Home Health and Hospice, 170 Church Street, Franklin, NC 28734.

Macon Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

The Franklin Press, 11 March 2003