

Margaret 'Peggy' Price

Margaret "Peggy" Price, 68, of Franklin, passed away Saturday, July 2, 2005.

A native of Brownsville, Texas, she was the daughter of the late William Patrick "Harry" Driver and Margaret Ryman Driver. She was married to the late Eugene Price, who died on Oct. 7, 1997. She was preceded in death by two sisters, Elizabeth and Joyce.

She was a member of Trinity Assembly of God, where she served on the prison ministry and campus on mission. She was the founder of the Evangelical Brotherhood.

She is survived by two children, Jeffery Price of Merrimack, N.H., and Cheryl Blackburn of Bunnell, Fla.; and eight grandchildren.

A memorial service was held Wednesday, July 6, at 11 a.m., at Trinity Assembly of God. Rev. J.D. Watson officiated.

In lieu of flowers, memorial donations may be made to the Hope Women's Cancer Center, 100 Ridgefield Court, Asheville, NC 28806.

Macon Funeral Home was in charge of the arrangements.

Online condolences are available by visiting www.maconfuneralhome.com.

The Franklin Press, 8 July 2005