

Ella Mae 'Granny' Prince

Ella Mae "Granny" Prince, 88, of Highlands, passed away on Thursday, Jan. 12, 2006, at the home of her daughter, Louise Cadenas, her caregiver for the past five years.

She was the daughter of the late Samuel Luther Johnson and Missouri Talley Johnson of Highlands. A native of Highlands and of the Baptist faith, she was a loving wife and mother.

She was a cook at Highlands-Cashiers Hospital and numerous restaurants in Highlands for many years. Her greatest joy in life, aside from her family, was her love of gardening and flowers. Her flowers were an inspiration for many local artists, the family said.

She is survived by two daughters, Louise Prince Cadenas and husband Marco, and Katherine "Kathy" Poindexter and husband Jerry, all of Franklin; a son, Harold "Windy" Prince and wife Carolyn of Seneca, S.C.; 15 grandchildren, 21 great-grandchildren; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Funeral services will be held at Bryant Funeral Home in Highlands with burial at The Little Church in Wildwood, Horsecove in Highlands. Arrangements are still to be determined.

The family is at the home of Louise and Marco Cadenas, 35 Lloyd Tallent Rd., Franklin.

Bryant Funeral Home is in charge of the arrangements.
