

Pauline M. Queen, 69, died Friday, Feb. 18, 2005, at her residence.

She was born in Turnerville. She was a member of Gilead Baptist Church. She took care of her children while her husband served in the U.S. Army.

Survivors include: her husband, Nelson Queen of Macon; a son, Randy Queen of Lizella; two sisters, Rosa Rogers of Rabun County and Winnie Rogers of Conyers; a brother, Danny Moore of Rabun County; and two grandchildren, Nichole Queen of Lizella and Kevin Lee Barnard of Macon.

Funeral services were held Feb. 20 in the Macon Memorial Park Funeral Home chapel with the Rev. George W. Lord Jr. officiating. Burial followed in Macon Memorial Park Cemetery.

Memorial donations can be made to Alzheimer's Association, 277 Martin Luther King Jr. Blvd., Macon GA 31201.

The Clayton Tribune, March 3, 2005