

Annie Ruth Marsengill Quilliams, 79, of Clayton, died Monday, Nov. 28, 2005, at Stephens County Hospital in Toccoa.

She was the daughter of Frank and Dora Matthews Marsengill. She retired from Clayburne Manufacturing Company. She was a member of Wiley Church of God and was the last member of her immediate family.

She was preceded in death by: her first husband, Fred R. Watts in 1992; two sons, Bruce and Melvin Watts; and a granddaughter, Tammy Watts.

Survivors include: her husband, the Rev. J.C. Quilliams of Clayton; five sons and daughters-in-law, Tommy and Trish Watts, Raymond and Michaelina Quilliams and Roy and Stephanie Quilliams, all of Clayton, Randall and Kay Quilliams of Mountain City and Gary and Faye Quilliams of Rabun Gap; a daughter and son-in-law, Betty Ann Watts and Wayne Moore of Clayton; two daughters-in-law, Tiney Watts and Desi Watts, both of Clayton; 18 grandchildren; and 11 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services were held Wednesday at Hunter Funeral Home with the Revs. Jimmy Kilby and Gary Ashe officiating. Burial followed in Roane Cemetery.

Hunter Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

The Clayton Tribune, Dec. 1, 2005