

IN MEMORY OF AUNT NANNIE RABY

"Aunt" Nannie, as we all called her, passed from this world of sorrow and care to her eternal home above, on Tuesday morning of last week. She had been in ill health for some time, yet she was very patient. But on last Tuesday morning God seen cause to take her out of her suffering to a better home above.

She is sleeping, only sleeping,
With all earthly trials past;
She is sleeping, only sleeping,
And her joys will ever last.

"Aunt" Nannie was always good and kind to every one she came in contact with. We are all going to miss her for she was our neighbor, and was always ready to help those that needed help. As long as she was able she visited the homes of the sick and afflicted and tried to lend a helping hand. She has fought a good fight and is now sleeping, only sleeping, with all earthly trials past; she is sleeping, only sleeping and her joys will ever last.

Oh, what a sad day when she went away, her heavenly mansion to see; but God knows best and doeth all things well.

"Aunt" Nannie was born 1856; died July 3, 1928. She was laved to rest in Burningtown cemetery July 4. She leaves to mourn her death: Two sisters, one brother, and a host of relatives and friends.

The Franklin Press, 19 July 1928