

William H. Raby

William Homer Raby, 77 year old Macon County native died Sunday in a local rest home.

Prior to going to the rest home Mr. Raby had made his home with a nephew, Frank Seay, for the past ten years.

Rev. J. S. Cunningham, Rev. Clifford Hornbuckle and Rev. Fred Sorrells conducted the funeral service at the Watauga Baptist Church Tuesday with grandsons of the deceased serving as pallbearers. Burial followed in the church cemetery.

He is survived by five sons, Joe Raby and Henry Raby of Pohokie, Fla.; and Kenneth of St. Louis, Mo., Frank Raby of Franklin, and Eugene Raby of Covington, Ga.; two daughters, Christine Raby and Louise Raby; two brothers, Frank Raby of Cherokee and John E. Raby of Tampa, Fla.

Bryant Funeral Home was in charge of the arrangements.

The Franklin Press, 18 November 1971