

Bobby V. Ramey, 69, of Clayton, died Wednesday, April 19, 2006, at his residence.

He was born Aug. 17, 1936, in Wiley to Charlie Burch and Essie Elizabeth Page Ramey. He attended Battle Branch Baptist Church and was a member of Lakemont Baptist Church.

He operated Ramey's Texaco on Main Street for many years. He then operated the Chevron station on Highway 441 before opening a station on Tiger Connector Road.

He was preceded in death by two brothers, Johnny Ramey and Russell Ramey.

Survivors include: his wife, Marcia Jones Ramey; a daughter and son-in-law, Becky Ramey and Todd Epps of Clayton; a son, Chris Ramey of Clayton; three brothers, Hoyt Ramey and Mike Ramey, both of Wiley, and Clifford Ramey of Clayton; three sisters, Ophelia Turner of Cleveland, Janet Turner of Wiley and Opal Ivester of Hull; three grandchildren, Josh Epps, Chris Epps and Chad Epps; and a number of nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were held Friday at Beck Funeral Home with the Rev. Madison McCrackin officiating. Burial followed at Wiley Cemetery.

Memorial donations can be made to the Wiley Cemetery Fund, P.O. Box 116, Wiley, GA 30581; or to Battle Branch Baptist Church.

Beck Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements. An online memorial register is available at www.beckfuneralhome.com.
