

Genelia Ramey

Genelia "Jean" Elizabeth Ramey, 84, of Newport News, Va., died on Wednesday, June 13, 2001.

Born in Clayton, she had been a Virginia Peninsula resident for more than 50 years. She was a member of Alderstate United Methodist Church for many years and more recently a member of Lee Hall Baptist Church.

She was preceded in death by her husband, Vennes E. Ramey; a son, Varna W. Ramey; a grandson, Mark W. Ramey; her parents, John Jasper Pointer and Elmer J. Smith of Chechero; four brothers, Dennis, Ernest, Luther and Jesse Pointer and two sisters, Louise Pointer and Arlissie Talley.

Survivors include two sons, Corvallis W. Ramey and his wife, Gertrude, formerly of Chesterfield, Va., and Dennis W. Ramey and his wife, Genevieve, formerly of Colonial Heights, Va.; her daughter-in-law, Patricia Ramey of Newport News, Va.; six grandchildren, 16 great grandchildren and two great-great grandchildren; two brothers, Duckett and Eugene Pointer; her sister, Catherine L. Brown; her husband, Tommy; numerous nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were conducted June 16 at Peninsula Funeral Home with burial in Parklawn Memorial Park, Hampton, Va.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests memorial donations be made to Bon Secours Hospice, 3636 High Street, Portsmouth, Va. 23707