

Mr. Reddish

Michael Lee Reddish, 20, of Carson Community in Franklin, died in an automobile accident Friday, Nov. 26 in Fort Worth, Tex.

A native of Stuart, Fla., he was the son of Lee and Dorothy Kirkland Reddish. He was an apprentice carpenter employed by Billy Lee Construction, and a 1980 graduate of Franklin High School.

Services were held Tuesday, Nov. 30, at Bryant Funeral Home Chapel, with burial in Carson Cemetery. Officiating ministers were Rev. Bobby Crawford and Rev. Radford Penland. Pallbearers were James McMahan, Jamie McCall, Ricky Bates, Earl Blanton, Junior Tallent and Jeffrey McMahan.

Surviving, along with his parents, are the paternal grandmother, Idell Colbert of Sinton, Tex.; the maternal grandmother, Lucinda Kirkland, of Franklin; one brother, James Reddish; three sisters, Cynthia Gregory, Susan Kopp, and Beverly Reddish, all of Franklin; and two nieces.

Bryant Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

The Frank