

Dorothy Mae Reed, 87, of Franklin, passed away Thursday, Nov. 15, 2007.

Born in Beaver Falls, Pa., she was the daughter of the late Ivan Deloe and Victoria Stucka Nye. She was preceded in death by her husband, Ralph G. Reed.

She retired from Don's Trucking Co., where she worked as secretary. She was a member of the St. Maurice Catholic Church in Hollywood, Fla. Dorothy loved to play bingo.

She is survived by two daughters, Sara Richardville of Franklin and Elizabeth Cloyes of Hollywood, Fla.; one brother, Donald Deloe of Indiana; four grandchildren; four great-grandchildren; and several nieces and nephews.

A funeral service was held Monday, Nov. 19, in Hollywood, Fla. Burial was in the Hollywood Memorial Gardens in Hollywood.

Macon Funeral Home was in charge of the local arrangements.

Online condolences are available by visiting www.maconfuneralhome.com.

The Franklin Press, 20 November 2007