

Marie Bullman Reiter, of Chambrel in Roswell, Ga., and Highlands, a Christian and committed evangelist for the Lord Jesus Christ, passed away on Thursday, Dec. 28, 2006, just a few days after her 93rd birthday.

In the 1970s, Marie moved from Miami to Horse Cove in Highlands, where she was a member of the First Presbyterian Church and an active volunteer in her church and community.

In 1995, she moved to Chambrel and attended the North River Baptist Church in Roswell.

Marie was preceded in death by her first husband, Douglas Bullman; her daughter, Jean Marie Anderson; her grandson, Rick Bullman; and later by Frederick Reiter.

She is survived by her sister, Helen Cole of Sun City, Fla.; her sons, Dick Bullman of Coral Gables, Fla., and Douglas L. Bullman of Alpharetta, Ga.; her grandchildren, Lori Wasco of Plantation, Fla., Buffy Sidd of Miami Gardens, Fla., Joyce Almeida of Orlando, Fla., Mark Bullman of Atlanta, Ga., and Douglas Bullman of Roswell; stepson, Paul Reiter of St. Louis, Mo.; and stepdaughters, Peggy Moffitt of Vencie, Fla., and Susie Taylor of Lavonia, Ga.; 10 great-grandchildren.

She will be remembered as a loving sister, wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, confidante and friend.

A memorial service celebrating Marie's life will be held at Chambrel, 1000 Applewood Dr., in Roswell, on Wednesday, Jan. 3, 2007, at 5 p.m. Marie will be interred at the Church in the Wildwood in Horse Cove, Highlands.

Services in North Carolina were directed by Bryant Funeral Home in Highlands on Tuesday, Jan. 2, at 11 a.m.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests that a donation be made to the American Bible Society, 1865 Broadway, New York, NY 10023 or Metropolitan Hospice, 200 Village Parkway, Marietta, GA 30067.
