

Susan Ann Rhoad, 51, died Tuesday, Nov. 20, 2007.

She was born Dec. 27, 1955, in Atlanta to Guy and Mary Alice Rhoad. She attended Brenau and Mercer universities before beginning work as an elementary school teacher. She left her job upon the birth of her first child. She always had time for her children. She enjoyed the mountains, and her favorite moments were spent at the home her late father built on Lake Burton. She also loved the beach and looked forward each year to the annual trip to Edisto Island, S.C., with her children. She enjoyed being outdoors, yard work and refinishing furniture.

Survivors include: four children, Mary Brittany, Ashley, Austin and Stanton Buice; a brother, Hal Rhoad; the father of her children, Stan Buice; and her niece and nephews.

A memorial service will be held at 3 p.m. Saturday at Tom Wages Funeral Home in Lawrenceville. The body has been cremated.

Flowers may be sent to the funeral home or memorial donations may be made to the American Cancer Society.

The Clayton Tribune, Nov. 29, 2007