

FUNERAL HELD FOR MISS RICE

Rites For 87-Year Old
Resident Conducted At Asbury Church

Funeral services for Miss Nancy Adeline Rice, 87, a resident of Macon County for the past eight years, were held Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock at the Asbury Methodist church.

Miss Rice died Friday afternoon at the home of her nephew, Harley Thomas, of the Smiths Bridge community, after a long illness.

Officiating was the Rev. Robert L. Poindexter. Burial was in the church cemetery.

Born November 28, 1864 in Dawson county, Ga., Miss Rice was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Rice.

Pallbearers were the following nephews: Homer and Roy Wade, Willey Norton, Hoyt Thomas, Tommy Lee Norton, and Bill Burrell.

Surviving are a number of nieces and nephews.

Arrangements were under the direction of Bryant Funeral home.