

Dr. Richmond

Naomi Long Richmond, Ph.D., died Wednesday, Aug. 21. A native of Louisburg, she was the daughter of the late William Oliver and Jessie Gill Long. After the death of her parents, Dr. Richmond was reared by her great aunt, Mrs. Sallie L. Rodwell of Louisburg. Dr. Richmond was a graduate of North Carolina A&T State University. She received her master of education from UNC-G, and her doctorate in education from the University of Illinois at Urbana.

Dr. Richmond taught public schools for over 10 years. She was a professor at North Carolina Central University in Durham and N.C. A&T State University. After teaching, she continued working within numerous departments at N.C. A&T State including the Office of the Chancellor.

She is survived by her husband, Billy Richmond; sisters Rozella Kearney of Virginia; Lucy Coopers, Sallie Long and Madeline Long of New York; Jessie Long of New Jersey; Linda Bailey of North Carolina; her aunt Rosa Lee Jones of North Carolina; numerous nieces, nephews, cousins, colleagues and friends.

Funeral services were held on Saturday, Aug. 24 at the Presbyterian Church of the Cross in Greensboro. Rev. James F. Miller and Pastor Prince Rivers officiated. Funeral service arrangements were provided by Woodard Funeral Home, 3200 North O'Henry Blvd, Greensboro, NC (336-621-3461).

Memorials may be sent directly to the funeral home.