
Mrs. Rickman

Fannie Alva Holbrook Rickman, 75, of the Cowee Community, died Thursday, July 22, at Angel Community Hospital after an extended illness. She was the daughter of the late James R. and Pearl Gibson Holbrook, and married to Thomas M. Rickman, of Macon County.

She was a homemaker and member of Cowee Baptist Church where she was Sunday School teacher of the intermediate class and flower chairman for the church.

Surviving, in addition to the husband, are one son,

Roy Rickman of Franklin; one daughter, Zena Pearl Brogden of Franklin; three brothers, Vance, Weaver, and Paul Holbrook all of Franklin; five sisters Nannie Childers of Whittier, Vera West of Asheville, Edith Hall, Orpha Burrell, and Vinne Davis, all of Winston-Salem. Four grandchildren, and four great-grandchildren also survive.

Services were held Saturday, July 24, at Cowee Baptist Church, and burial was in the church cemetery. Officiating ministers were Rev. Lloyd Fish and Rev. Clarence Vance. Pallbearers were Hoyt Bryson, Ralph Sanders, Lem Clark, Roy Jones, Robert Morgan, Ernest Childers, Charles Cabe, and Jack Dillard.

Memorials may be made to the Fannie Rickman Memorial Flower Fund of the Cowee Baptist Church, c/o Milton Fouts.

Bryant Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.