

MRS. J. E. RICKMAN

Mary Jane Potts Rickman, wife of J. E. Rickman; departed this life May 4, at 4:25 a. m. aged 61 years and 15 days. Converted in her girlhood, she united with Cowee. She removed her church membership to Franklin ten years ago. Sick for a period of three years, she was helpless for the last three weeks. She was a faithful Christian, a patient sufferer, a good mother, a faithful wife, and a lover of company and a dispenser of hospitality.

Large congregations, assembled both at Franklin and at Cowee to pay respect to her memory. The church was banked with beautiful flowers from many sections.

She faded like a flower. Her radiant smile will remain in our memories. She bore her cross patiently and nobly. She has gone to a better land.

The funeral sermon was preached from 1 Samuel 1; using Hannah, the praying mother, as a subject.

Her soul has journeyed on,

All earthly ties are riven,
The crown of glory has been won,
We'll meet her up in heaven.

W. M. LEE.

The Franklin Press, 9 May 1929